Commodore's Corner

Have you been to the YC yet to see the "new" bar and lounge area? Many people have commented on how nice and inviting it looks and is.

Dawn and I have planned a sailing trip to Belize in the middle of January so I have had to write this before I leave and before the playoffs start. Go Ravens! Since we will be out of town the Bar revenue might suffer. I know there are several of you out there that we can count on to fill that gap, so to speak.

Our GM has promised us that he was going to do the football playoffs right this year.

There will be some new menu items and the house/bar will not close until at least a ½ hour after the games are finished. He also may have gone a little overboard on that promise with an ethnic slant on the food. Starting with the Italian sausage with peppers and onions on what he says will be a great roll, that might be pushing it for the Eastern Shore; we'll let the members decide. (I'll bet it was great).

Dan has even told me that he's tired of getting beat up by the beer drinkers and has put Yuengling Draft back on the tap. I told him it was a risky move when he did it, but you know those young guys. They have to find things out for themselves. Lesson learned!

Hopefully you've had a chance to come on over to your YC and enjoyed the house being open this January while watching a game or two. I don't want to blow their chances so I wouldn't say that I trust the Ravens have continued through the playoffs.

Regardless of which teams are playing, the YC will have a Super Bowl party with the obligatory pool, (this year we will leave the numbers off the grid until the board is sold out), and side bets. I challenge the Tontarskis to invite their son-in-law back so we can get even with him for winning two out of the four quarters last year.

I know we all can't wait until the warmer seasons start, it has been a long winter already. Have faith. The next time I see you I'll be the one with the tan; sorry had to rub it in.

See you soon!

Lee Urbani

Ed. Note: Alas, the Commodore came back from his travels minus a tan. It rained for six out of the seven days he was sailing.

Junior Olympics Update From Wanda McCue

I've always believed you get more out of life by giving. Coordinating the JOs is a perfect example of how my 1st year of RHYC membership has been enriched through active participation. I personally want to thank everyone who has volunteered to assist me. It's truly a pleasure to work with such an impressive group of seasoned YC members and other new members like me. With 6 months to go, we are in a flurry of planning activities, and it's not too late to join the fun. Our next meeting is Feb. 20th at 10 am. For further information about the Junior Olympics, please go to

Requiescat In Pacem

Emily "Sue" Coleman, the widow of James L. "Dink" Coleman, a past Commodore of RHYC, passed away in December. Sue was a current "Honorary Lifetime" Member, and her most recent contact with RHYC was in November when she called to send her regrets for not being able to attend the annual commodores' dinner. We extend our heartfelt condolences to her family.
